GHOULS SCARED OFF .- Last night the a:teation of the watchmen and keepers of the cometeries near this city was attracted by the continuous barking of dogs, and Mr. Wetb one of the sextons, thinking something must he krong, quietly went to the railroad track, not far off, and requested the assistance of some of the hands. This request was promptly complied with and the party, fully armed, went in the direction of a grave in which a corpse had been laid that evening. With the ail of a light it was discovered by tracks in the snow February 20,th 1382, (Court day) at about 12 that several persons had been at the grave, and their retreating steps could be heard in the distance. Pursuit was quickly given, but soon all traces were lest in the road leading to Hunt ing creek. It is supposed the ghouls saw the light, and becoming frightened flad before they had time to molest anything. The party who went in pursuit say they would have taken no prisoners, as they think resurrectionists should be treated with no consideration whatever.
